

SPIE Journal Submission Guide

Thank you for choosing to submit your paper to an SPIE Journal. This guide is meant to help you through the submission process.

Begin the journal submission process by clicking the Submit a Manuscript button on the landing page of the SPIE journal you will submit your paper to. This brings you to the submission portal. You will then be required to log in to your existing account or create a new account.

Once logged in we encourage you to read the Author Instructions for information on submission instructions, policies, guidelines, and manuscript types, then you may click to begin the process of submitting your manuscript. Note that submission requirements vary and the process may differ slightly by journal.

1. Choose Manuscript type:

Submission Process

Prior to submission, be sure to review the author guidelines. You may also want to read the descriptions of the different types of manuscripts.

In the left panel of the submission form, you will receive a green check mark beside each step as you complete it. Steps can be completed in any order.

When all the steps have a green check mark, you will be able to submit your manuscript. The editorial office is then notified of the submission, and you and all of the co-authors listed on the submission form will receive an automated email notification that the submission has been received.

Choose the appropriate manuscript type:

* Open Access

Journal of Applied Remote Sensing offers an author-choice open access publication option. The article processing charge (APC) for open access is $1675. Discounts may apply. Open access papers are published under a Creative Commons CC-BY license. Your decision about whether to pay for open access has no impact on the review process or the timing of publication of your article. If you do not choose to pay for open access, your paper will be published with the standard SPIE transfer of copyright agreement and will be available only to journal subscribers.

Yes, if my paper is accepted, I intend to pay the fee for open access.
 No, if my paper is accepted, I do not intend to pay for open access.

Article Processing Charge (APC) Discount

If any author on this paper is an SPIE member, the paper is eligible for a 25% discount on the open access fee, reducing the fee to $1255. Annual membership dues for SPIE members are $125. Become a member.

One or more authors on this paper are members of SPIE.
 No authors on this paper are members of SPIE

Provide the name of one author who is a member:

If any author on this paper is a guest editor or a member of the editorial board of JARS, the paper is eligible for a 25% discount on the open access fee, reducing the fee to $1255. Note: you can skip this question if your paper already qualifies for a member discount, since only one discount may be applied.

One of the authors is an editorial board member or guest editor of JARS.
 None of the authors are JARS editors.

Provide the name of the author who is an editor of JARS:

If any author on this paper is affiliated with an institution that has a subscription to the SPIE Digital Library, the paper is eligible for a 25% discount on the open access fee, reducing the fee to $1255. Note: you can skip this question if your paper already qualifies for a member or editor discount, since only one discount may be applied.

One or more authors on this paper belong to institutions that subscribe to the SPIE Digital Library.
 No authors on this paper belong to institutions that subscribe to the SPIE Digital Library.

Name of the SPIE Digital Library subscribing institution (this institution must match the affiliation of one of the authors on the author list):

If all authors on the paper are from eligible countries on the SPIE special consideration list, the open access fee will be reduced to $425.

All authors on my paper belong to a country on the SPIE special consideration list, and I believe our paper qualifies for the reduced open access fee of $425.
 This fee reduction does not apply to my paper.

If any author belongs to an institution that has an open access publishing agreement with SPIE, the APC is waived.

One or more authors belong to an institution that has an open access publishing agreement with SPIE (select from list below).
 No authors belong to an institution that has an open access publishing agreement with SPIE

If one or more of the authors qualifies for free open access publishing through an institutional agreement with the SPIE Digital Library, please select the institution from the list below.
